

ChemXpress

Experience Drives Improvement

ChemXpress is a deployment template that significantly decreases the time it takes to implement Microsoft Dynamics 365 for Finance and Operations.

Our team has over 30 combined years of experience completing hundreds of implementations, giving us a tested and proven manufacturing industry template tailored for chemical manufacturers.

We created this set of structured processes based on leading industry scenarios to move your project forward while keeping costs and timelines under control. With the help of ChemXpress, you'll find your new system will be easy for everyone in your company to learn and use on a daily basis.

ChemXpress

Rapid Deployment: Faster Time to Value

PRE-CONFIGURED DATABASE

A fully configured, readily deployable company-wide template designed for quick implementation of your processes into Dynamics 365. Fullscope's preconfigured database includes a fully operational company, complete with core business processes including: record to report, order to cash, procure to pay and plan to produce, all optimized to reflect the reality of a modern chemical manufacturing company.

BUSINESS PROCESS

A comprehensive business process model incorporating over 1,000 business processes focused on a chemical manufacturing company that supports industry-specific implementation activities, training and workshops.

CLOUD-BASED TOOLSET

A proven implementation approach, fully utilizing Microsoft Lifecycle Services and a cloud-based toolset to ensure consistency, predictability and a shortened timeline.

DETAILED TASK GUIDES

A set of more than 600 detailed task guides, step-by-step instructions that can also be run as automated guidance to walk users through daily processes of regular business operations such as product and formula setup, quality data configuration and country/state-specific shipping restrictions.

A Formula For Success

We've seen the proven successful practices of countless chemical companies, and leveraged this experience to bundle more than 1,000 leading industry processes into ChemXpress, creating a pre-defined chemical company with data sets and parameters that are specific to the industry. Our compact timeline combined with ChemXpress's pre-configured infrastructure, toolset and sample data provide an easy place to start an implementation—eliminating costly hours of analyzing and training. Our pre-built transaction-ready environment means you can demo the product with industry-specific solutions and data. Our pre-recorded task guides also increase user adoption by allowing users to quickly take ownership of their processes.
